The artifact has an image of John Wesley on horseback, framed by a wreath motif, with an inscription underneath stating, The World is My Parish. On the reverse side is the inscription, “To Commemorate the Golden Jubilee of Methodist Union 1932-1982. This, too, keeps the same wreath motif of the Wesley image. Both wreaths are bordered by four vertical corners of the same floral design. The bottom of the artifact has the inscription, Alan and Roberta Scott which continues underneath with Gnosall Methodist Church Stafford. The artifact is a limited production run with this one being one of three hundred. The dimensions are 3.5 inches tall and 6 inches wide including both handles.	Ceramic	1982
