

2022 Music Director Position

Morristown Unitarian Universalist Fellowship is seeking a new part-time (20 hrs/wk) Director of Music Ministries to start in September 2022. Our growing New Jersey congregation is a vibrant, multi-generational community, spiritually alive, justice centered, and radically inclusive. We come from many religious and cultural backgrounds and find strength in our diversity. We follow multiple paths to wisdom, justice, and the sacred and we value music from a multitude of sources during our Sunday services and other musical events.

Our congregation comprises about 350 members and has an active religious education program. The position includes preparing music for two services Sunday mornings (except for about 15 Sundays each year when there is one service) and other musical program work and development.

We support our UU values with a music program created by professional staff and music-loving members. We pay fair salaries and benefits as per UUA guidelines. If you would like to be considered for this position, please email us at MusicSearch@muuf.org to request a detailed job description and application instructions.
