

Morissa Schwartz C'15, G'20 -- Young Alumni

Morissa Schwartz graduated from Drew University in 2015 with a major in English and a minor in writing, and again in 2020 with her D.Litt concentration in writing and dissertation topic on Nihilistic Libertarianism in Popular Culture. Morissa also received a Masters from Monmouth University in 2017. During her time at Drew, Morissa was incredibly active as the president of Sigma Tau Delta, an executive member of the student conduct board, a writer for 'The Acorn,' two-time winner of the Chapman Prize in Poetry, a Baldwin and Dean Scholar, an executive member of the Grad Students Association, and a member of several clubs and volunteer at many events.

Morissa started GenZ Publishing, a book publishing company that has released many powerful books on current events, innovative ideas, and young adult literature. They have published a 7 certified Amazon Bestsellers, and their books are read around the globe. Upon the company's success, Morissa has gone back to Drew to give other students the experience of working in a book publishing company.

Morissa also owns Dr. Rissy's Writing and Marketing, which was ranked in the top 2 social media marketing companies in New York.
