

Willa Cather Collection Finding Aid

Biographical Note

Willa Sibert Cather was born in Back Creek Valley, Virginia, on December 7, 1873. In 1883 her family moved to Nebraska, settling in Red Cloud two years later. Cather attended the University of Nebraska and began publishing reviews and stories in local papers. She graduated in 1895 and subsequently took a position at Home Monthly magazine in Pittsburgh, Pa. In 1906 she moved to New York to join the staff of McClure's Magazine, where she worked as managing editor until 1912. With her long-time companion Edith Lewis, she made New York her permanent home. In 1923 Cather was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for One of Ours. She died on April 24, 1947.

Her books include: April Twilights (1903), The Troll Garden (1905), Alexander's Bridge (1912), O Pioneers! (1913), The Song of the Lark (1915), My Antonia (1918), Youth and the Bright Medusa (1920), One of Ours (1922), A Lost Lady (1923), The Professor's House (1925), My Mortal Enemy (1926), Death Comes for the Archbishop (1927), Shadows on the Rock (1931), Obscure Destinies (1932), Lucy Gayheart (1935), Not Under Forty (1936), Sapphira and the Slave Girl (1940), and, posthumously, The Old Beauty and Others (1948).

Scope Note and Provenance

Drew University Library's Willa Cather Collection is a fully cataloged collection of printed and manuscript materials, comprised of works from the collections of Frederick B. Adams, Finn and Barbara Caspersen, Earl and Achsah Brewster, Yehudi Menuhin, Louise Guerber Burroughs, and Frances Holt. Included are books, serial publications, essays, articles and reviews; manuscripts and typescripts; correspondence to, from and about Cather; personal notebooks; photographs and ephemera.

The Willa Cather Collection has been made possible through the generous donations of Finn and Barbara Morris Caspersen, Marilyn Callander, Frances Holt, and others.

Correspondence from Willa Cather, Arranged Alphabetically by Recipient

Cather, Willa. A.L.s to Frederick Adams, Sept. 17, [1935]

On stationery headed Hotel Royal Danieli Venezia, with autograph envelope. Includes a photocopy of Cather's T.L.s to Carroll A. Wilson, Mar. 18, 1926, and copy of T.L. from Adams to Wilson, with Adams's penciled initials, dated April 3, 1936. Cather's T.L.s to Wilson on stationery headed with her initials. Both of Cather's letters concern her connection with Georgine Milmine's biography of Mary Baker Eddy, as does Adams's letter to Wilson, describing his meeting with Cather. ADAMS 168 1.

Cather, Willa. A.N.s to Glen Blodeth [?] [Nov. 21, 1920]

With autograph envelope postmarked Nov. 21, 1920. Enclosed is a typed (badly faded) 5-line stanza, beginning, "In the night, the long night, when thou slept alone." Cather has added in ink 2 exclamation points (lines 3 and 5) and her initials "W.C." at foot. An earlier version of this poem was published in The Library, Mar. 17, 1900. CATHER 17.

Cather, Willa. T.L.s to W.S. Braithwaite, May 3, 1911.

Written on stationery with letterhead of McClure's magazine. Inserted into Braithwaite, W.S. Anthology of Magazine Verse for 1913. Cambridge, Mass. : W. S. B., 1913. ADAMS 138 6.

Cather, Willa. 4 A.L.s and 1 T.L.s to Earl and Achsah Barlow Brewster, 1917-1934.

A.L.s dated January 7, 1917; February 16; February 21 [1923]; and November 29; T.L.s dated July 1, 1934. Three of the letters written on paper headed "Number Five Bank Street"; 2 on paper headed "W.S.C." Cather refers to the Brewsters' writings and paintings, describes a transatlantic crossing with Edith Lewis, mentions the success of several of her own works, and confides to the Brewsters that Edith Lewis dislikes Cather's friends, the Hambourgs. BREWSTER 22.

Cather, Willa. T.L.s to Prof. Brown, Feb. 23, 1929.

Written on headed stationery of The Grosvenor. [1] leaf. Cather declines to give Prof. Brown permission to include her story "Double Birthday" in a textbook before it appears in a collection of stories from her publisher. She gives permission to use "The Sculptor's Funeral," and questions why that story is more popular than "Paul's Case," which she considers a much better story. CASPERSEN 76

Cather, Willa. 69 A.L.s or A.N.s (including 4 postcards) and 6 T.L.s to Louise Burroughs, 1925-1946, most with autograph envelopes.

With Burroughs's occasional penciled notes in margins. Includes also letters from Burroughs and 10 others: 5 letters from Burroughs, including T.L. to Cather and A.L. draft to Edith Lewis; and 16 letters (7 A.L.s, 9 T.L.s) from 10 others: to Burroughs from Malcolm Wyer, Kathleen Campbell, Sarah Bloom, Edith Lewis, George D. Crothers and Morton Zabel; to Cather from Van Wyck Brooks, Bruce Rogers, and her Nebraska friends Anna Pavelka and Lydia Lambrecht. Includes also unsigned, undated typescript, with Cather's ms. corrections and note, of poem "A Lament" (published later as "Poor Marty"), dated by Burroughs "Xmas 1926," and 2 unsigned woodblock Christmas cards designed by Bryson Burroughs between 1928 and 1933. In her letters to Burroughs, Cather asks for research assistance, writes about her current reading, reflects on her work, and refers to Yehudi Menuhin, D.H. and Frieda von Richthofen Lawrence, the Lindberghs, Mabel Dodge Luhan, Edna St. Vincent Millay, the MacDowell Colony and the death of Isabelle McClung Hambourg. With literary articles, book reviews and obituaries, and an inscribed photograph from Cather, dated Jan. 1, 1926. Burroughs's exchanges with Edith Lewis regard Cather's religious affiliation and Lewis's memoir of Cather. BURROUGHS 26.

Cather, Willa. 3 A.L.s to Miss Chapin. Red Cloud, [1927-1929?]

Miss Chapin worked at The Forum magazine, which serialized Death Comes for the Archbishop in 1927 and published "Double Birthday" in 1929. Letter 1 probably refers to the book, letters 2 and 3 to the story. Letters 1 and 2 have heading "Red Cloud"; letter 2 also has date "February 15"; letter 3, without place name, on Cather's initialed stationery. CASPERSEN 52.

Cather, Willa. T.L.s to Florence Pearl England. Lincoln, Sept. 10, 1896, with ms. postscript.

Written on headed stationery of The Home Monthly, with leaf [1] typed and signed, and leaves [2]-[3] in ms. Cather expresses her dissatisfaction with a drawing by England for The Home Monthly, and details changes to be made. Inserted is an article, "More of Less Personal," clipped from The Sunday Journal, Lincoln, October 21, 1902, referring to Cather's weekly letter from Europe in that paper. ADAMS 139.

Cather, Willa. Typed copy of a letter and postscript to Dorothy Canfield Fisher, Sept. 4, 1931. With 2 A.L.s from Fisher to Ralph Allan, Aug. 28, [1931] and Sept. 25, 1931, and T.L.s from Alfred Harcourt to Allan, Sept. 9, 1931.

Inserted into Cather, Willa and Dorothy Canfield. The Fear that Walks by Noonday. New York : Phoenix Book Shop, 1931. ADAMS 164.

Cather, Willa. 14 letters (5 T.L.s, 9 A.L.s) to Sidney and Trixie Florance, 1945-1947.

Letters written from Maine, New York and Canada to Cather's banker and his wife in Red Cloud, Neb. Nine autograph envelopes, 1 typed; 9 letters on Cather's initialed stationery, 1 on headed stationery from the Asticou Inn, Northeast Harbor, Maine. Letters dated: June 30, 1945, with envelope stamped Whale Cove, Grand Manan, New Brunswick, Canada; Aug. 11, 1945; undated, with envelope postmarked Aug. 12, 1945; Oct. 30, [1945]; Nov. 21, 1945; Feb. 26, [1946]; June 12, 1946; Dec. 18, 1946; Feb. 28, 1947; Dec. 18, [n.d.]; Dec. 22, [n.d.]; Thursday; Thursday; [n.d.]. Some of the letters deal in part with Cather's business and real estate affairs in Red Cloud, while others contain reminiscences of her earlier life there. CASPERSEN 54.

Cather, Willa. A.L.s to Dr. A.L. Garbat. Northeast Harbor, Maine, July 25, [1944]

On stationery with letterhead Asticou Inn, Northeast Harbor, Maine. Autograph envelope postmarked July 1944. Discusses the weather and her health. Mounted and framed. Discrepancy between date on letter (July 25) and postmarked date on envelope (July 11, 1944). CATHER 20.

Cather, Willa. T.L.s. to Rabbi Solomon Goldman. Northeast Harbor, Maine, Aug. 17, 1946.

On stationery with letterhead Asticou Inn, Northeast Harbor, Maine, with Cather's corrections in ink. Written in response to Rabbi Goldman's request for her opinion on the Bible as literature, or source of ideas. CATHER 22.

Cather, Willa. T.L.s to Mrs. Frank Grippen. New York, Jan. 14, 1931.

On headed stationery of the Grosvenor Hotel, New York. With typed envelope addressed to Mrs. Frank L. Grippen in Spokane, WA, postmarked Jan. 15, 1931. Both on the envelope and in the letter, Cather has crossed out "Miss" and written in "Mrs." She discusses My Mortal Enemy. CASPERSEN 53.

Cather, Willa. A.L.s to Rev. J.R. Henry. Pittsburgh, June [22?], 1897. Autograph envelope postmarked Pittsburgh, June 22, 1897 ; "Tuesday" at head of text, without date. Cather tells Henry that she is soon to leave for a month in Red Cloud, Neb., and thanks him for his kindness to her in Pittsburgh ; T.L.s to Adams from the book dealer Robert Black, dated Jan. 30, 1955, and Black's sales catalogue description of the letter. ADAMS 140.

Cather, Willa. A.L.s to Samuel Marshall Ilsley. New York, Jan. 9, [1934]

Written on headed stationery of The Grosvenor. [1] leaf. Cather sends greetings to "all my friends in Santa Barbara," and thanks Marshall for the news and photograph of Katherine Hooker, about whom Ilsley wrote a memoir. CASPERSEN 77

Cather, Willa. A.L.s to Ruth N. James. [New Brunswick] Aug. 23, [1931]

On stationery with her initials. Autograph envelope postmarked Aug. 1931. Cather thanks James for her appreciative letter. Mounted and framed with reproduction of photograph of Cather. CATHER 19.

Cather, Willa. T.L.s to John Sexton Kennedy, Nov. 1, 1932.

On stationery with her initials. Cather refers to Obscure Destinies and states her appreciation for the "long short story," wishing the form were regarded as favorably in the United States as it is in France. CATHER 23.

Cather, Willa. 2 T.L.s to Henry Goddard Leach, Sept. 1, [1931] and May 25, 1932.

On stationery headed "W.S.C."; letter dated Sept. 1st, also with stamp at head ("Whale Cove, Grand Manan, New Brunswick, Canada"), has press cutting affixed to p. [1]. Cather complains to Leach, editor of The Forum, about Granville Hicks's unfavorable review of Shadows on the Rock, and his critical estimate of her work in general in that publication. Inserted is [1] leaf of Adams's typed notes concerning Hicks's review. ADAMS 162.

Cather, Willa. A.L.s to Yehudi Menuhin, Jan. 22, [1938]
